(Special to The Evening World.) SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—For the second time within a year Senator Platt has found that he is not the absolute Boss in Republican politics in New York State.

Last winter Gov. Odell refused peremptorily to endorse his Constabulary Police bill for New York City; last night Gov. Odell, with equal firmness, declined to accept Senator Platt's candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, George R. Sheldon, and for the second time Senator Platt lost his temper—and lost his hold on the leadership. Gov. Odell is now the real head of the Republican party in this State.

Without discussing the question of veracity between the Senator and the Governor as to the responsibility for Mr. Sheldon, those in the secrets of the leaders are now explaining the Senator's advocacy of Mr. Sheldon. The story is that since Odell became Governor the Wall street men have not responded with any fervor to appeals for campaign funds and the need of large contributions in the coming campaign was fully appreciated.

Mr. Sheldon's close affiliation in a business way with men who heretofore have contributed liberally was brought to Mr. Platt's attention, and Mr. Sheldon was sounded. According to the story here Mr. Sheldon has been willing to undertake the raising of funds, in fact he was confident he could raise $100,000. With this assurance, Mr. Sheldon became a serious candidate.
But Woodruff's flight and Gov. Odell's refusal to run if Platt persisted in trying to force Mr. Sheldon's nomination, ended with the latter's retirement from politics early this morning. He personally announced the fact to a staff correspondent of The Evening World at 2:34 A. M. to-day in the telephone office here as he was sending a despatch to J. Pierpont Morgan, of Broad and Wall streets, advising Mr. Morgan of a new come that he (Mr. Morgan) could not control.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Delference of last night when they met in convention to-day.

A lot of the delegates didn't show up at all. They heard last night that a row was on between Platt and Odell, and not a few took the first train out of Saratoga to the high grass.

If they had stayed a little longer they would have found everything

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 24.— A damp, raw, east wind made things a bit uncomfortable for the occupants of the grand stand this afternoon, but the great army of hustlers after good things in the betting ring would not have cared if the air was actual zero and the wind from the vicinity of the North Pole. They kept warm enough, and at times they were positively hot under the collar.

The card was fairly good in spots.
There was a good handicap and a good stake for the two-year-olds, but the rest of the races were below par.

In the Albermarle a well-matched bunch of fillies were sent to the post, promising one of the most interesting events of the day. The fourth race, a handicap at a mile and a quarter, looked like a walk over for Louis V. Bell, he having both Hermis and Francesco entered.

The track was fast and dry. The attendance was below the average because, perhaps, of the weather.

Maree Lane, 100, Shaw, 7, 31 9 20 10 Start poor. Won readily. Time—1:10.

The Musketeer broke in front, made all the running and won cleverly. Clorita was second away and Astorita third, and they ran this way throughout. The Musketeer won, ridden out, by a length from Clorita, who was a length and a half in front of Astorita.

SECOND RACE.
Setting, for three-year-olds, one mile and a sixteenth.

Starters, white, jockeys, S. H. P. in. Str. Place.

Esene had the speed and set a stiff pace, followed by Old Hutch. There was a close finish between Hutch and Rockey ran in a close bunch in behind and they were never dangerous. When they swung into the stretch Old Hutch went to the front and drew away, winning easily by a length from Esene, who was four lengths in front of Bar le Duc.

TROOPS OUT AT WILKESBARRE.

Ninth Regiment Ordered by the Governor to Protect City from Strikers.

MOB RULED ALL NIGHT.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 24.— Gov. Stone has called out the Ninth Regiment, of this city, and the men will all be in camp half a mile from here to-night.

The regiment, which is 750 strong, is commanded by Col. C. B. Dougherty. Battalions will at once be sent to Pittston, Nanticoke and Plymouth.

The remainder of the men will be held in readiness to be rushed by special train to any points where rioting occurs.

Sheriff Beddall, of Schuylkill County, has requested Gen. Gobin to place the county under martial law. Gen. Gobin will consult Gov. Stone in regard to the matter. Indignation is expressed by the strikers on every hand.

Mobs ruled the Wyoming Valley all night and this morning.

At the time the call for soldiers was wired small forces of deputy sheriffs scattered about the valley were being attacked or besieged by infuriated mobs comprising hundreds of men armed with clubs and revolvers, and appeals for help were constantly received.

Attacks on Mine.

Attacks were then being made on the No. 18 mine of the Lehigh & Wilkes-barre Coal Company, at Wanamie, and the big steam shovel at the washery was wrecked with dynamite and the houses of men employed working it were stoned and fired into. The deputies were unable to make any headway and were fired at whenever they tried.

A mob paraded the streets of Nanticoke during the night and a number of men were beaten, while this morning all who tried to reach the colliery were turned back. Guards and deputies at the Exeter colliery at Stumersville were besieged and bombarded during the night, and this morning when they tried to escort some non-union men to work they were attacked by an armed mob two hundred strong.

Deputy Sheriff Williams was shot and clubbed as he lay on the ground. His companions charged and managed to rescue him, but he is dying. A fireman was shot in the leg.

At the Avondale and Bliss Collieries of the Delaware, Lockawanna and Western this morning large mobs attacked the men on their way to work, stoning them and firing at them, and there was continual rioting.

Four Shot at Pittston.

At Pittston four men were shot during riots, two very seriously.

At Maitly, North Wilkesbarre, Exeter, Parsons, Mill Creek and other places mobs lined the roadways, surrounding the collieries where work has been going on with pickets several hundred strong and with no fear of the guards or the deputies. A steady rain has kept the crowds from marching this morning, but they are gathered in such force at the collieries where work has been done that they command the roads.

Three attempts have been made to wreck the bridge leading to the Silver Creek Colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company within the last week.

Troops were sent by Gen. Gobin this morning to guard the bridge while a train of coal cars passed over it.

PRINCESS IN SHIPWRECK.

Victoria of Norway and Sweden Aboard the Royal Yacht, Runs on Rocks in the Baltic.

BOATS TO HER RELIEF.

The Royal Guest, It Is Supposed, May Not Be in Very Grave Danger, as Accident Happened in Calmar Sound.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 24.— Swift vessels have been sent from here to the credit of King Oscar's yacht, which is on the rocks in the Baltic Sea with the Crown Princess Victoria aboard.

The yacht is ashore near Calmar on the east coast of Sweden, about 100 miles south of Stockholm.

Reports received here concerning the yacht and the Crown Princess are meagre, but it is not believed that the passengers are in any particular danger.
The yacht is a large craft built expressly for the comfort of the royal family and no provision was overlooked for safety.

One reason why the belief is that those on board the yacht are safe is because she is ashore in Calmar Sound, according to the information received here and not out in the Baltic. Help has doubtless reached the vessel from Calmar.

Princess Victoria was on the cruise for her health.

Princess Victoria is the wife of Crown Prince Gustavus, who for the past two years has virtually been the King of Sweden. The health of King Oscar is so poor that he is unable to attend to his duties as ruler of the people of Sweden and Norway.

The Princess is the daughter of the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden. She married for reasons of state at a time when the Crown Prince was infatuated with a peasant girl.
She is a hypochondriac of the most pronounced type, and spends very little of her time in Sweden. Almost since her marriage she has traveled in warmer climes, making her home in Rome most of the time. A few years ago the Crown Prince went all the way from Stockholm to Italy to visit her.

DISBROW INDICTED
BY THE GRAND JURY.

Prisoner's Counsel Moves for an Immediate Trial and the Case Will Soon Go on the Calendar.

An indictment for murder in the first degree was returned this afternoon against Louis Disbrow by the Suffolk County Grand Jury. His counsel moved for an immediate trial and the motion will probably be granted.

It was feared this morning by those who believed Disbrow guilty of the murder of Clarence Foster and "Dimpie" Lawrence that the indictment would be returned. The Grand Jury intimated to District Attorney Smith that more evidence was needed and took an adjournment to permit the District Attorney to get additional witnesses. This he did, presenting the testimony of New York surgeons, and the indictment resulted. The prisoner's counsel, who declared this morning that there would be no indictment, professed to be greatly surprised at the outcome.

The vote on the indictment was close.
There was a fierce contest of the two almost equally divided parts of the jury for and against indictment. Those who favored letting Disbrow go free stuck out obstinately.

But the contradictory stories told by Disbrow just after the tragedy, his disappearance from Good Ground and the testimony of his wife that he told her three days after the bodies were found that he must leave the country, could not be overlooked by the majority of the jury.

Disbrow is defiant. He laughed at the Grand Jury's indictment and said: "I am ready for trial at any time."

His lawyer says everything that happened on Tiana Bay the fatal night will be told and that he will clear his client.

PRESIDENT
HAS LESS PAIN.

Mr. Roosevelt's Condition
Improved as His Special Train Slowly Advanced to Washington.

SPENT THE DAY READING.

Temperature Is Normal and Physical Condition Good—Possibility of Another Operation Gives No Cause Whatever for Alarm.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 24.

When President Roosevelt's train reached here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, it was announced that his temperature was normal and that he was steadily improving. Secretary Cortelyou declined to make a formal statement.

The President passed the day in bed with his leg propped up on a pillow and an interesting book in his hand. His physical condition is all that the doctors could ask, barring the wound on his leg. He has suffered little pain from this to-day and Dr.
Lung has not found it necessary to apply a new dressing.

No Bulletins Issued.
It has been decided to issue no bulletins as to the President's condition for fear that too much importance would be attached to his disability, which the doctors say is in no sense dangerous.

The President enjoyed the most refreshing sleep last night that he has had since he left home and felt so well this morning that he wanted to get out of bed and sit in the palor of his car. He followed the advice of his doctors and did not arise.

Arrangements have been completed for removing the President from his car when Washington is reached to No. 22 Jackson square, the temporary executive offices. A carriage will be in waiting at 6:30 o'clock, at which time the train is due there, and the President will be placed in a chair and carried to it.

A telegram was received to-day from Mrs. Roosevelt announcing that she is on the way to Washington from Oyster Bay.

Must Keep Quiet.
The President will have to remain quiet for about ten days, and it has been decided that he shall stay in Washington during that period.

The report that another operation will have to be performed excites no alarm. It is said that second operations are frequent in abscesses.

The President read a good deal last night. A light had been adjusted to the head of the bed.

No information is being given out officially from the train. The railway employees have been given instructions to give the Presidential special the right of way over each division, so that, slow as it is going, it is not delayed by traffic, but simply by the efforts of the different engineers to see that the car containing the President is not unduly delayed.

Notice that Trip Is On.
Secretary Cortelyou has sent notice to all the cities the President was to visit, which read like this:

"Please see bulletins regarding the President issued to the press. The President regrets exceedingly that he will be unable to carry out his intentions to visit your city at present.
He is deeply appreciative of the interest shown in the plans for his reception and desires that you communicate the purport of this despatch to your associates on the committee and all others who should be advised.
He will certainly try to make the visit at some future time."
